June 2020

Stay Alert and Stay Safe.

In this month's newsletter we keep you updated on the advice from BRC, Announce our Clubs 'have a go' dressage competition and provide you with Quizzes to keep you entertained.

BRC update

The latest government guidance states general riding is permitted providing you are alone, with members of your own household, or with no more than 5 other people from different households.

This is excellent news and we will be discussing as a committee, along with our Health and Safety advisor, any activities we believe we can safely run. More details will be shared next week. In the meantime here are the details about the changes from British Riding Clubs.

➤ Travelling both with and without your horse, is allowed for exercising, training or facility hire.

➤ Lessons and Training may now take place in groups of no more than 6. This number of 6 must include the instructor /additional organiser. BRC clubs may now organise training activities in-line with this maximum number.

➤ Hacking may be done alone, with members of your own household, or with no more than 5 other people from different households. Organised hacks are permitted under the BRC banner.

➤ Fun rides are now permitted under the BRC banner.

➤ Camps are now permitted as per the 'lessons and training' category above. Camp activities must adhere to the max 6 people rule, and social distancing etc must apply. No overnight stays are permitted – participants must arrive, complete the activity, and return home.

➤ Competitive riding events are not currently permitted under the BRC banner

➤ Social and un-mounted events are permitted under the BRC banner. These should only be held outdoors and should be for no more than six people.

HAVE A GO DRESSAGE COMPETITION

This is a free, fun competition for members only so you can start to get back into competition mode. You need to state the level you are riding and make up a test including movements appropriate to that level in any order. No minimum or maximum length, and the arena can be any size.. You don't need to dress up in competition clothes but can if you want to. Boots and bandages are allowed, but otherwise tack must be per dressage rules. Rather than marks per movement, the test will be marked on the quality of the work in each pace, quality of the transitions and general harmony between horse and rider

The Rules and requirement

- You don't need to dress up, unless you want to. This is all for fun
- Please film from C end of the arena (where the judge would usually sit)
- Film in landscape
- When sending your film please let us know the test, and name of Horse and Rider. Please also include the test level, (Into, Prelim, Novice etc)
- Entries close Friday 26 June.
